

Petitions (41-1) – Support of M-312
Amendment of Section 223(2) of the Criminal Code

Prayer #1

"Whereas Canada's 400 year old definition of a human being says a child does not become a human being until the moment of complete birth, contrary to twenty-first century medical evidence;

And whereas Parliament has a solemn duty to reject any law that says some human beings are not human;

Therefore, we call upon the House of Commons in Parliament assembled to confirm that every human being is recognized by Canadian law as human by amending Section 223 of our Criminal Code in such a way as to reflect twenty-first century medical evidence."

Prayer #2

"We, the undersigned Citizens of Canada, draw the attention of the House to the following;

That the Supreme Court on January 28th 1988 stated that it is for Parliament to enact the appropriate defences of its legitimate interest in the lives of all subjects, including those yet in the womb.

That a destructive vacuity in the Criminal Code has resulted in the failure of the Supreme Court to strike down the phrase "after becoming a human being"(223(2)) along with the then Section 251 of the Criminal Code.

That this phrase has long exposed to destructive harm a child in anyone's womb at anytime in Canada.

Therefore, your petitioners request that Parliament consider restoring to the Criminal Code the prudence it held prior to 1968, by removing the words "after becoming a human being" from Section 223(2).

Prayer # 3

We, the undersigned residents of Canada, draw the attention of the House to the following:

Whereas, Section 223(1) of the Canadian Criminal Code definition of "when child becomes human being" remains identical to Section 195(1) Statutes of Canada, 1953-1954;

And whereas, the phrase "after becoming a human being" was added to Section 223(2) in 1968;

And whereas, the science of embryology, ultra-sound, intra-uterine photograph, micro-surgery and foetal health interventions have confirmed that a pre-born child is a distinct, developing, fully alive human being, regardless of the means of procreation, age, race, sex, gender, condition of physical or mental dependency and/or disability;

Therefore, your petitioners call upon Parliament to strike down Section 223(1) and Section 223(2) of the Canadian Criminal Code and replace it with a definition that reflects current embryological knowledge; recognizes the humanity and dignity of the child before birth; and extends full legal protection to every human being from their biological beginnings to natural death".

Petitions (41-1) – To Restrict Abortion

Prayer

*"Whereas Canada is the only nation in the Western world and in the company of China and North Korea without any laws restricting abortion;
And whereas Canada's Supreme Court has said it is Parliament's responsibility to enact abortion legislation;
Therefore, we call upon the House of Commons in Parliament assembled to speedily enact legislation that restricts abortion to the greatest extent possible."*
