

Abidjan – February 25, 2022

Dearest Father (Pope Francis),

The decree I have just received gives me the possibility to write to you with great joy.

I wish, Dear Father, to assure you that I am not against my Father. I love you with all my soul and I humbly beg you: please rectify the errors of your pontificate (cf. my two published open letters, my two interviews and my three future open letters). It is for your good and that of the Church.

I wish to remind you of the words of Jesus: "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much" (Luke 12:48).

I also wish to remind you of the teachings and advice of St. Catherine of Siena to Pope Gregory XI.

Thank you, Dear Father, for reading me, may Jesus and Mary bless you and help you!

A strong embrace

Your son

Janvier Gbénou
(pen name: Father Jesusmary Missigbètò)